

Please confirm receipt of this email as my formal request for cancellation of the drywood termite treatment contract pursuant to the terms outlined in the warranty agreement and substantiated in my points above and, to confirm again, my formal request for the $1581 drywood XT-2000 warranty repayment.

My complete address again is: [REDACTED]

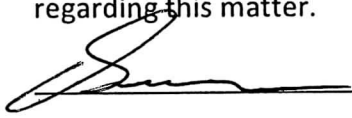

Thank you Chet.

Benjamin Garside
[REDACTED]

I, Benjamin Garside, have received a full reimbursement of $1581.00 for a termite treatment dated 6-23-2010 for Drywood Termites as per your agreement.

My wife and I understand that I am no longer under any sort of warranty for Drywood Termites and I will seek alternative methods to treat the termite infestation.

We also understand that you are holding Chet's Termite & Pest Management harmless of any future claims regarding this matter.
